1. SLURPY, PETUNIA, and BURNIE are setting up on a picnic table in the Garden District. BURNIE is upset that they weren't eating at the Food District like SLURPY promised. However, SLURPY had to change plans after getting banned from the Food District the other day. PETUNIA is happy to have BURNIE in her hometown for a nice picnic, but BURNIE grows frustrated with SLURPY for his incompetence.

2. Fed up with BURNIE'S temperament, PETUNIA tells him to get off SLURPY'S face and cool off. However, SLURPY planned to have a pie-eating contest with BURNIE to make up for the trouble. But with BURNIE away and PETUNIA not interested, POTATO, eating from a tree's lemons, trips off and expresses interest in eating against SLURPY, especially since he was impressed by SLURPY'S predicament.

3. Away from the picnic, BURNIE decides to gorge the scenery like he planned. However, he has a distaste for the bushes and produce grown throughout, so he decides to "store" them in his inventory instead so he could cook them into dishes. And so, BURNIE stole crops from all over the Garden District, from fruit trees and berry bushes to farmland, confused by the lack of people. POKEY PINETREES is the first to see the trees robbed.

1. Residents of the Garden District gather around to see SLURPY and POTATO eat as many pies as they can while PETUNIA holds a stopwatch. She meets a gal pal of hers, BEBE BYRD, and talks about SLURPY and BURNIE. BEBE then overheard POKEY and NUTTY ALLEGI alerting GIANNI SLACE about messing fruit, nuts, and berries. GIANNI believes ANNA FRESH is at it again, but she's been in the crowd and only steals berries.

2. BURNIE plucks each turnip underneath the farm soil. BEBE comes in and plucks up a turnip BURNIE was nabbing, who recognized her as a fierce rival while BEBE suspected him as the food thief. She lectures him that the Garden District is a delicate agriculture that helps feed CRiTOPiA, including the Food District, but BURNIE doesn't care and they brawl with each other until BURNIE wins, happy to be taking BEBE'S turnips.

3. But then, IGGY DIGAHOL comes in, wondering why BURNIE was stealing their turnips. BEBE, as she emerged, points out that she grows tulips before punching BURNIE away. Some of his stolen goods fall out, convincing BEBE that BURNIE is the food thief.

ACT 3

1. BURNIE conflicts with SLURPY after growing hungry and nearly eating POTATO'S lollipop tail. Despite BURNIE'S attempts to set SLURPY ablaze, it was no match for SLURPY'S water spraying. They make amends and BURNIE cleans up to amend the Garden residents.
